

About Us

Trbhi is an IT Application Development and Managed Services company with offices in Rochester, MN and offshore services in India and Philippines. We believe in delivering sustained customer value through innovation, efficient business process and cost effective approach.

Service Offerings

Our team blend their business and technical knowledge to analyze your business requirements and develop an organized implementation approach tailored to match your needs and objectives. We have enviable track record of successfully managing large programs for clients including a large telecommunications company, biggest healthcare retailer (Fortune 50) in the United States and Digital Assets Management product customization in the Europe.

Managed Services

Trbhi understands the changing role of IT in the healthcare industry and offers custom developed Managed Service models to support and drive continuous improvement. Our models range from providing staff augmented capabilities to fully managed service of assuming complete responsibility of your IT specific function using combination of onsite and remote support offerings, industry-leading capabilities, specialized resources while improving your operational performance and maximize return on your investments. Our operational model adheres to strict compliance and security requirements in healthcare IT.

Our Team

- Several decades of Technology and Managed Services experience across multiple different domains with deep expertise in development, maintenance, support and enhancement
- Expert technical team with ability to provide 24*7 coverage in a reliable and secure environment
- Certified developers with experience in Small to Fortune 500 companies

Skills

- Best in class recruiting team
- IT specialists and Analysts utilizing onsite and remote delivery model
- Redundant and Secure: 24*7 staffing model

Processes

- Lean and Six Sigma techniques to eliminate waste and redundancy
- Best in class application development methodology
- Continuous Improvement

Integration and Tools

- Leverage deep industry experience to bring best practices
- Negotiate and work in a multi-vendor, multi-disciplinary environment
- Leverage clients existing investment in tools and processes

Information Analytics

- Real-time transparency into operations and key metrics
- Proactive monitoring and analysis
- Best in class closed loop corrective action process driven by advanced analytics

Application Development and Maintenance Services

With the emergence of applications on cloud, explosion of mobility, Big Data and convergence of computing, business across industries are experiencing new pressures as well as opportunities. To remain competitive, organizations need to ensure that their applications are working effectively and efficiently, supporting all their unique business requirements. Trbhi offers a full range of application maintenance and support services to ensure business continuity and long term value.

Our strength spans the breadth of Microsoft based technology platform services, Mobile, Custom Application Development and Legacy application modernization, enhancement and maintenance. Trbhi's collective experience of several decades will provide significant value to any engagement. Our systems thinking approach, creative problem solving, understanding the confluence of Business and IT has proven to be a successful model with our customers.

Platform Services

- Hybrid Cloud Application Development
- Product Prototyping
- Cloud Transformation & Advisory
- Legacy Modernization

Technology Services

- Azure, AWS
- Xamarin / PhoneGap
- RESTful API, Microservices, SQL/NoSQL
- Enterprise Search, Machine Learning

Mobile Application Development

Trbhi has deep expertise and skills in creating business-critical applications from a user-centered design perspective, guided through an Agile SDLC and employing contemporary architectural patterns. From analysis and architecture through to design, coding, testing, and deployment, we provide expertise at all levels of application design, including database design, business logic, integration, UX and UI

Our strengths include understanding business problem, concept prototyping, MVP, superior UX/UI design, Agile development process with high quality rapid deployment schedule.

Technology Expertise include but not limited to:

- HTML5, CSS3
- JavaScript, C#, PHP
- Java platforms, .NET, Apache/IIS
- iOS, Android

Legacy Application Environment Support

We have deep expertise and several decades of experiences on customer developed legacy applications, AS400 environment etc. developing customized applications, modernizing existing environment, testing and maintenance of legacy environment.

Our focus areas include

- Application Development, Maintenance, support of legacy systems
- Performance improvement and Modernize existing applications
- Data migration, Backup management, Reporting, Analytics
- Patch Management, Operating System Maintenance and System Optimization
- Performance Analysis, Testing Services and Document Management